LONDON
PROPERTIES

WE'RE HERE FOR YOU!

• Moving may be genuinely stressful. Decisions have to be made. Who will deliver the furniture? Where do we find a new doctor? We can help!

• Our people are not Realtors® but moving counselors, here for only one reason to make your move a lot easier.

• No matter where you're moving, we can tell you about your new home town—even before you arrive. We'll provide you with detailed information about the community, schools, points of interest, shopping, restaurants, weather and more. We'll also provide some helpful hints to simplify your move. We'll even forward you the local paper to give you an advanced "feel" for your new home. Audio/visual tapes may also be available. In short, the personal services we provide are designed to inform you and move the burden of relocating your family from your shoulders to ours.

• When it's time to visit your new home town, we can help coordinate your travel plans, arrange your mover, ship your family car, even find you a new babysitter.

• When you've had time to digest all the information and have had a preview of our community, we'll interview and help you select the Realtor® best suited to your wants and needs. Then we'll monitor their performance and, when necessary, act as your ombudsman to ensure you get exactly what you're looking for with no pressure.

• For over 40 years we have collected the top Realtors® in all 50 states. These agents have a strong empathy for the needs of relocating families. Their services are constantly evaluated by our Relocation Director to ensure you the highest degree of professional service. If you require temporary housing, a lease, a home, property management or any other specialized services, our Accredited Relocation Specialists can help.

• Your moving counselor can also help with the sale of your old home. We'll be happy to provide you a free estimate of your home's current value or a free comparison of housing costs between any two cities. When the time is right, we'll introduce you to the best Realtor® to handle your sale.

• Your moving counselor will provide you with introductions to the best mortgage lenders. You'll be advised of current financing options as well as exclusive mortgage programs which can provide you the lowest possible rates.

• When you need home repairs or improvements in Central California, our free HomeCare referral system can provide you access to some very special contractors and service providers. It's another "one call does it all" Free service by London Properties designed to eliminate hassle and make your move as easy as possible.

• In short, London Properties is your one-stop resource to help you enjoy your home. So make your best move.
